"In 1906 he was transferred to the Pay Office at Winchester, where he served until 1908, being then transferred to the Pay Office, Portsmouth, serving in this office until February, 1909.

"From 1909 to 1914 he was Pay List Clerk at Brookhurst, and on the outbreak of the Great European War in August, 1914, he took his place once more in the office of the Assistant Director of Medical Services, Portsmouth, where he performed most important duties in a thorough and painstaking manner, only resigning on August 18, 1919, on account of his wife's serious illness.

"In the London Gazette, dated September 2, 1918, Pensioner (Ex-Staff-Serjt. Medical Staff Corps) W. J. Peake is mentioned 'For valuable services rendered in connexion with the war' (published in the Journal of the Royal Army Medical Corps, October 4, 1918).

"The above is a splendid record of fifty-one years of continuous good service. During two great national emergencies (the South African and the Great European Wars) this very gallant old soldier came forward willingly and gave most valuable service to his King and Country."

APPONTMENT OF MEDICAL OFFICER FOR THE TREATMENT OF CASES OF WAR NEUROSIS IN SOUTH AFRICA.

We have received the following letter, which is published for general information:

UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA.

High Commissioner's Office,
Military Staff Office,
64, Victoria Street,
September 19, 1919.

To the Secretary, War Office, Cornwall House, Stamford Street, S.E.1.

Sir,—I am directed to ascertain whether any medical men with sufficient experience—and preferably not too long qualified—can be found at short notice, who can be recommended by your department as suitable to take up the position of Medical Officer for the treatment of cases of war neurosis in South Africa.

The probable terms of engagement would be for one year, and passage would be paid both ways, unless, at the end of the time, the Medical Officer elects to remain in South Africa.

The pay suggested is at the rate of £2 2s. 6d. or £2 5s. per diem.

I am further directed to state that no definite offer of an appointment may be made at the present time, and that the information asked for is required by the Union of the Government of South Africa.

An early reply will greatly oblige as the matter is very urgent.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
(Signed) H. P. Mills, Major,
For Lieutenant-General, D.D.M.S.,
South African Contingent.
