DEATHS.

Alban Young, Bt., K.C.M.G., M.V.D., of Oxford, he was born Sept. 6, 1910, and took the M.B.Oxon., in 1938. Commissioned Lieut. R.A.M.C. (War Emergency Commission) Dec. 1, 1939, he was promoted Capt. Dec. 1, 1940. He was heir to the Baronyct.

SMYTH.—On July 2, 1942, in the Middle East, Colonel Francis Gerald Augustus Smyth, C.B.E., late R.A.M.C. Son of Lieut.-Colonel Frederick Augustus Smyth, L.M.S., he was born March 2, 1881. He was educated at St. Bartholomew's Hospital, where he obtained the Kirkes Gold Medal and Scholarship in Medicine, Crackenbury Medical Scholarship and Burrows Prize in Pathology. He took the L.R.C.P.Lond., and the M.R.C.S.Eng., in 1914, and graduated M.B.Lond., in 1923. Commissioned Lieut. R.A.M.C.S.R. Aug. 6, 1914, he transferred to the R.A.M.C. Jan. 1, 1917. Promoted Capt. Feb. 16, 1918, Major Aug. 16, 1926, Lieut.-Colonel Nov. 18, 1936, and Colonel May 27, 1942. At the time of his death he was an acting Brigadier. He served in France from Aug., 1914, till June, 1918, being awarded the 1914 Star, British War and Victory Medals. He took part in the campaign in Waziristan 1919-1921, receiving the Medal with Clasp. In the present war he was mentioned in despatches London Gazette Dec. 30, 1941, created O.B.E., London Gazette April 1, 1941, and C.B.E., London Gazette July 8, 1941.
MALLEY.—In Battersea on July 2, 1942, Albert Edward Malley, M.B.E., M.S.M., Secretary of the R.A.M.C. Association since he founded it in 1925, with, as he used to say, very little Ploney and a large amount of faith. The Association was the apple of his eye; few knew the amount of work he put into building it up and the marvellous connection he worked up in job finding. His loss to other ranks leaving the Service is irreparable. No trouble was too much for him and anything he undertook was done thoroughly without fuss and it was done. All who knew him mourn the loss of a sincere friend and a most lovable man. Born Aug. 24, 1879, he enlisted Aug. 24, 1898, and attained Warrant Rank April 14, 1917. He retired Aug. 23, 1926, and devoted the remainder of his life to the Association. He took a Commission as Lieut. R.A.M.C.T.A. (Q.M. 140 London Field Ambulance) Oct. 1, 1926, which he resigned May 23, 1931. He served in South Africa during the war there and was awarded the Queen's Medal with Clasps, Relief of Ladysmith and Tugela Heights and the King's Medal. In the Great War he served in Salonika, being awarded the M.B.E., M.S.M., the French Military Medal, French Medal of Honour for Epidemics, the Serbian Samarian Cross, the 1914-15 Star, British War and Victory Medals. He was in possession of the Long Service and Good Conduct Medal.

Major P. J. Martin, M.B.E., M.S.M., writes:—

The death of A. E. Malley is a blow from which we all in the Corps will not soon recover. He will best be remembered for his long and enduring work for the Corps Association. One can say without fear of contradiction that by his great interest and ungrudging labour, he “made” the Association and without him, it would not have attained its high standard or achieved its many successes.

It was in Salonika some 26 years ago that the writer first met “Ted” Malley. He was then Serjeant-Major of a British Military Hospital attached to the Royal Serbian Army, and looking back one well remembers the reputation he made for his unit by his outstanding zeal, his sense of hospitality and his popularity with all ranks and patients. After Salonika, we met again at Millbank during the lean years of depression preceding 1930. It was there that I saw evidenced the work he did for ex-members of the Corps who were not in work and down on their luck. His interest in such men was tremendous and many will have cause to remember him with gratitude for his efforts in finding them jobs and for his ready and unostentatious help in so many other ways. One often talks of single-mindedness of purpose in a man, but rarely in the writer’s experience has it been so pronounced as it was in Malley. He lived for one thing and for one thing only, and that was the Corps. Indeed, for years past he figured so prominently at Corps functions and came into such close contact with all ranks of the Corps—past and present—that it is difficult to realize that, when the war is over and we return once again to our Corps reunions and Association work, we shall have to do without his aid.

Malley will always be remembered as one of our outstanding men with an extraordinary zeal for the interest of the Corps he served so long and well and for his efforts for the betterment of the lot of ex-Corps members and their families who had fallen upon evil times. Alas! how many there were of them—only Malley knew.
